SHAPES Unlimited, Inc. Gifts $100,000 to YSU for “Jack Colonna” Locker Rooms

At a retirement celebration for its Chief Financial Officer, Jack Colonna, last Thursday evening at the Tippecanoe Country Club in Canfield, SHAPES Unlimited gifted $100,000 to Youngstown State University to memorialize Jack’s longstanding commitment to women’s athletics.

This gifting presented by SHAPES CEO, Doug Rende, in recognition of Jack’s 28 years of corporate service, was received by Ron Strollo, executive director of Intercollegiate Athletics, YSU, and Brian Nord, senior development officer, YSU Foundation.

“With his decades-long support of the YSU Women’s Basketball Team and overall commitment to the University, we are pleased to accept this gift, and in honor of his meaningful support and contributions, the YSU women’s basketball locker room has been named in honor of Jack,” said Strollo.

Jack Colonna – CFO Emeritus, SHAPES Unlimited, Inc.

Rende added, “Jack Colonna, a native son of Youngstown, has devoted his life to the area and our industry. His steadfast commitment to youth athletics, his distinguished military service to our country and his exemplary career at SHAPES Unlimited are most deserving of our testimonial and YSU gifting.”
